After lunch, the best place to start exploring Vienna is in the heart of the historical city centre. We'll head to Stephansplatz, where you can admire the capital's most important religious symbol, the magnificent Stephansdom Cathedral.

From Stephansdom, stroll down the Kartner Strasse, a street lined with shops. Heading to Vienna State Opera House, be ready to snap a few photos for memories you'll never forget.

Day 7: Explore the capital of Slovakia, Bratislava, then transfer to Budapest.

This morning we'll travel 1 hour to Bratislava. Bratislava, Slovakia's capital, is a charming city with an intriguing history. Have a stroll through the narrow streets of the Old Town, and a wander along the Danube with its many cafes and restaurants, before continuing to Budapest, another gem on the Danube River.

Budapest, Hotel Lion's Garden.

Day 8: Sightseeing in Budapest.

Hungary's capital, Budapest, is a city of two parts – Buda and Pest, which sit on either side of the mighty Danube and are connected by several bridges. Its relaxed and informal atmosphere, together with its plethora of historic and cultural monuments, has placed it firmly at the top of many travellers' visiting lists.

Some of our favourites are the sprawling Buda Castle, the amazing architecture of the Hungarian Parliament, and the Museum of Fine Arts. But one of the most treasured pastimes in Budapest has to be sitting in one of the local cafes, enjoying an al fresco lunch or mid-morning coffee, and simply watching the world go by.

Your time in Budapest will be spent on an included sightseeing tour, with free time afterward to explore on your own. In the evening, why not experience a cruise on the Danube River with great views of the spectacular neo-gothic parliament building.

Day 9: During travel to the Tatra Mountains, on the way, explore the UNESCO sites of Banska Stiavnica and Vlkolinec.

This morning we cross the Hungary-Slovak border and head to the heart of Slovakia. Today's first stop will be the medieval mining town of Banska Stiavnica, beautifully nestled in the Stiavnicke hills. This UNESCO-listed fairy-tale town is Slovakia's oldest mining town.

During the 16th century, gold, silver, and around 140 different minerals in the volcanic soil brought enormous wealth to the town. After lunch in this wonderfully intact Gothic and Renaissance town, we'll travel to the next precious attraction, the mountain village of Vlkolinec (Wolves' place), which is famous for its wooden log houses with colourful facades.

Our journey then continues to Slovakia's biggest mountains, the spectacular High Tatras, home to breathtaking fauna and flora that can no longer be seen in western Europe. On arrival, we'll check into our hotel in Smokovec, located in the heart of the Tatras, in the shadow of Gerlachovský štít (2,654m), Slovakia's highest peak.

Smokovec – Hotel Villa Siesta (or similar)

Day 10: A free day in the High Tatras.

The High Tatras form the natural border between Slovakia and Poland and are the highest mountains in the Carpathian range. The landscape, three-quarters of which is in Slovakia, is crammed with rocky peaks, deep glacial valleys, mountain lakes, waterfalls, pine forests, and crystal-clear streams.

This also makes it a haven for flower-filled meadows and wildlife, such as Tatra chamois, brown bears, lynx, wolves, marmots, deer, and many bird species. Today, we will explore this stunning area on foot, following some of the easy trails to mountain huts, waterfalls, and lakes.

One of our favourite things to do in the mountains is to take a cable car ride to Lomnický Peak (2,634 m) for stunning, panoramic views (optional). You can also visit the stunning Belianska Cave or take a mountain tram to Strbské Pleso, Slovakia's highest village.

Smokovec, Hotel Villa Siesta (or similar)

Day 11: Traditional rafting in stunning Pieniny National Park, and then transfer to Krakow.

Travel to Pieniny National Park. Pieniny is often overlooked in favour of the more popular Tatra Mountains, so this National Park will give you a flavour of the peace and tranquillity of Slovakia's countryside – perfect for floating along on your traditional rafting trip in one of Europe's longest canyons.

Forming a natural border with Poland, the Dunajec was used in the Middle Ages to transport wood to the north – it was a simpler way than carrying it over the mountains.

The river is relatively calm so it's a great way to soak up the park's natural beauty, including rafting through the picturesque Dunajec Gorge, with its towering canyon walls. After about two hours of rafting, you reach Lesnica, the perfect spot for a well-earned lunch. Our journey then continues to Krakow, the former Polish capital.

Krakow, Hotel Benefis (or similar)

Day 12: Sightseeing in Krakow.

Krakow is a UNESCO World Heritage City famous for its beautifully preserved Old Town, which houses three kilometres of city walls, 46 spires, countless historical buildings, narrow streets, churches, and Rynek Glowny, Europe's biggest medieval market square. We've included a guided tour that explores the city's highlights.

The afternoon is free for you to spend time in Krakow - there's plenty to do in this relaxed and charming city. The square comes alive with performers throughout the day and provides plenty of entertainment. You may wish to visit Wawel Castle, now a museum, stroll alongside or cruise the Vistula River, enjoy a horse and carriage ride through the city streets admiring the beautiful architecture, or walk the Royal Route - the historical coronation path of Polish kings.

You can also visit the world-famous Wieliczka salt mines or the concentration camp of Auschwitz.
